Participants in this course will gain a knowledge of Assistive Technology laws, practice settings, state and federal agencies that support AT, and low to high tech solutions for individuals of all ages. We will focus on technology for reading/writing, vision/hearing, alternative augmentative communication, switch access, cognitive supports, and electronic activities of daily living. The course will consist of lecture, guest lectures, lab, and individual and group projects.

Instructors: Karen Fiekers, OTR/L, ATP
Occupational Therapist & A.T. Integration Specialist
Burlington, Vermont School District

Dawn Hameline, OTR/L, ATP
Occupational Therapist and A.T. Professional
University of Vermont Medical Center

For information: kfiekers@bsdvt.org